

1. Find the objects

The artist Flo Brooks uses their work to tell stories about people from history who they are inspired by. To do this, Flo cuts shapes out of lino flooring and makes acrylic paintings.

They also make handmade objects like sculptures of Joan of Arc's shoes.

Can you spot these items
in the paintings around the gallery?

Wheelbarrow

Cat

2. Decorate the shoes

Decorate a pair of shoes that belong to a person you admire. Then, complete the sentences to help you tell a story about them.

These shoes belong to:

They wear them when they:

I like this person because:

.....

.....

ASMAA JAMA AND GOULED AHMED EXCEPT THIS TIME NOTHING RETURNS FROM THE ASHES

ACTIVITY SHEET

1. Costume

Costume designer Gouled Ahmed helped to make Asmaa Jama's film.
Can you design a mask on the face below, inspired by the makeup on the characters in the film?

2. East African Doors

Asmaa and Gouled's film is surrounded by colourful walls inspired by East African doors.
Can you design your own door below?
You can look at the walls in the exhibition for ideas.

Examples

